

Bill Townsend, Blue Source

Mr. Townsend is CEO and co-founder of the Blue Source companies. Blue Source is the largest aggregator of ghg emission reductions world-wide with a current portfolio of over 350 million tonnes sourced in 45 states with over 45 million tonnes on existing public registries. Additionally, Blue Source is the leader in North America in the project development of anthropogenic CO2 pipeline systems having developed or built every vent stack-source CO2 pipelines in the US in the last 20 years. Blue Source specializes in developing ghg VERs in the geologic sequestration, transportation, substitution, waste and conservation markets. Blue Source recently announced the formation of a project development capital pool with First Reserve with equity and debt capacity approaching $1 billion for investment in carbon capture and storage projects in the US. Mr. Townsend is past president of Petro Source Carbon Company and co-founder of The Petro Source Companies. Mr. Townsend is former Chairman of The Life@Work Companies which publishes faith-based business media.